

Convoy Protest CCG Meeting Minutes

Attendees: Jason Reynar, Chief Laforet, Shelby Askin Hager, Jelena Payne, James Chacko, Chris Nepszy, Joe Mancina, Bruce Krauter, Vincenza Mihalo, Jason Moore, Chief Mizuno, Ryan Lemay, Dave Melnyk, Mel Douglas, Andrew Teliszewsky, Leslie Reeves, Norm Synnott, Mary Rodgers, Jill Braid, Emily Bertram, Susanne Hutnik

- Chief Laforet: The city is dealing with the convoy protests and police are leading that.
- Chief Mizuno: Ambassador Bridge remains closed. Non-commercial access available through Wyandotte St. Police are on scene and continuing to work with them. There were about 200 (protestors) there last night.
- Chief L: Chief Krauter has moved an ambulance to Tilston Armoury and we have moved two vehicles (Windsor Fire) to have access to the west side of the city.
- Jason R: With respect to reaching out for other resources, is there anything from our side that we need to be doing? When the province and feds have been asked for additional resources, let us know. If there is an illegal blockage, are the vehicles removed and we move on?
- Mizuno: Normally yes, but these demonstrators are different. The previous group had been compliant and left a lane open but this is a different unorganized group with no clear leader. We are trying to keep a lane open in each direction. Last night there was a lane open in either direction but it was not publicized. Public safety and the safety of our officers comes first. Not publicizing it but, they have had confrontations with them. If we could tow them all, we would do that. It is an evolving situation and we will deal with it as best we can. We do have access to provincial resources if this escalates.
- Jason R: We need to get something to council that just says it is more complicated and not just about towing, that you want to diffuse it. Councillor Francis was in the paper this morning.
- Andrew: Councillor Francis took a neutral tone. The mayor is in the national and international news. Yesterday we were sending everyone to police but today the mayor has to comment. Andrew to tell council members to say nothing as the mayor will be out there.

- Chief Mizuno: We would like to do a better job with our communications.

Chief Laforet adjourned the meeting at 0949 hours.
